

Moon-Saturn Conjunction

– Tanya Gupta

The presence of Moon - Saturn conjunction in horoscope, especially in the houses of marriage 1, 2, 4, 7, 8, 12 & houses of emotions 5th & 9th, is to be considered as a prominent indication that the married life of the person can be stressful or disturbed.

To be sure of the ill-effects of this combination on the married life, one should further examine few more parameters relating to marriage-

-Any afflictions to

-7H/7 (this is the most important parameter for seeing the ill effects of moon-sat)

-Venus (karaka of Marriage),

-2-8 axis or Rashi Tula Navamsha (RTN)

should be considered in the horoscope having Moon-Sat for the surety of the harmful results of this conjunction on the marital bliss.
